

universität wien

8th EastAsiaNet Research Workshop

Hosted by

Department of East Asian Studies, University of Vienna

Vienna, Austria, 15 ~ 16 September 2011

-- DRAFT AGENDA --

as of Sep. 12th 2011

Day 1: Thursday, 15.09.2011

Arrival of participants in Vienna, individual transfer to the hotel „ibis Wien Schoenbrunnerstrasse“

13:20 Departure from hotel (accompanied by UNIVIE Staff)

14:00 Opening session at UNIVIE Campus, Hof 2, entrance 2.4

Panel 1: The Future of Higher Education on East Asia: Concepts and Experiences

Moderator: Marie Højlund Roesgaard

14:30-14:45 Sean Golden, Universidad Autonoma de Barcelona
Do East Asian Studies really exist?

14:50-15:05 Tiziana Lippiello, Ca' Foscari University of Venice
East Asian Studies at Ca' Foscari University, Venice: Problems and Perspectives

15:10-15:25 Alain-Marc Rieu, ENS Lyon
East Asian Studies and the reconstruction of human and social sciences. The question of Global Studies

15:30-15:45 Jan Sýkora, Institute of East Asian Studies, Charles University, Prague
Who actually needs East Asian Studies? – East Asian Studies at Charles University between tradition and change

15:45-16:15 Coffee break

16:15-16:30 Rudiger Frank, Dept. of East Asian Studies, University of Vienna
Teaching about Regions? The Approach of the MA Program on East Asian Economy and Society in Vienna

16:35-16:50 Stephan Si-Hwan Park, Dept. of East Asian Studies, University of Vienna
Theory is good but experience is better: Harvard's Case Method

16:55-17:15 Werner Pascha, Institute of East Asian Studies, University of Duisburg-Essen
Discussion of Panel 1

from 17:15 Open floor
General Debate on Panel 1

18:30 Dinner at Restaurant Unibräu (in walking distance from workshop venue)

Day 2: Friday, 16.09.2011

Breakfast at hotel

08:05 Departure from hotel „ibis Wien Schoenbrunnerstrasse“ (accompanied by UNIVIE Staff)

Panel 2/1: Western Theory Meets East Asian Reality: Relevance and Applicability

Moderator: Jan Sykora

08:45-09:00 Kjeld Erik Brødsgaard, Asia Research Centre, Copenhagen Business School
Western Transitology and Chinese Reality

09:05-09:20 Harald Conrad, White Rose East Asia Centre, University of Sheffield
Positioning Asia in the Varieties of Capitalism Literature

09:25-09:40 Christian Goebel, Centre for East and South East Asian Studies, Lund University
Bringing the State Back Out? How fashionable development theories can('t) help us understand economic change in East Asia

09:45-10:00 Jesse Hearn-Branaman, Institute of Communication Studies, University of Leeds
The political-economy of news media in East Asia: A study of using the Propaganda Model in the People's Republic of China

10:05-10:25 Roger Greatrex, Centre for East and South East Asian Studies, Lund University
Discussion of Panel 2-1

10:25-10:45 Open floor
General Debate on Panel 2/1

10:45-11:15 Coffee break

Panel 2/2: Western Theory Meets East Asian Reality: Relevance and Applicability

Moderator: Christian Göbel

11:15-11:30 Miriam Löwensteinova, Charles University, Prague
Western Theory Meets East Asian Reality: Relevance and Applicability

11:35-11:50 Ayo Wahlberg, Department of Anthropology, University of Copenhagen
Conceptualizing the government of life in Asia

11:55-12:10 Roger Greatrex, Centre for East and South East Asian Studies, Lund University
IPR through the Looking Glass: Western Theory and Eastern Practice

12:15-12:30 Carmen Amado Mendes, Observatory of China
Discussion of Panel 2-2

12:30-12:50 Open floor
General Debate on Panel 2/2

12:50-13:00 Concluding discussion

13:00-14:00 Lunch at the conference venue (Asian buffet)

14:30-17:00 EAN Business Meeting (upon invitation only)

18:00 Departure from Workshop venue to dinner at Heuriger Steinschaden
(accompanied by UNIVIE Staff)

- End of workshop -